You may attach additional explanation of your workshop if you wish to do so, or to provide clarification of your proposal.

Provide brief responses to the following (in list form), regarding your proposed workshop. These responses will be used to create marketing materials if your proposal is accepted.

- What is the maximum number of students for your class?
- What will students create?
- What skills will students learn?
- What tools will students learn to use?
- What level is the class (All Levels, Beginner, Intermediate or Advanced)? Is prior experience necessary?
- Please provide all requested material and supply information on the Student Materials List page at the end of this form.

Instructor Biography

Provide a brief biography, in 40 words or less. Your biography will be included in marketing materials and on the ESSA web site, if your workshop is selected.

Instructor Availability and Workshop Length

Instructions: On the following page, please indicate your preferred date ranges and number of days for your workshop, as well as any blackout dates that you will NOT be available to teach the proposed workshop. ESSA staff will work with all instructors to construct the best possible schedule for peak enrollment. Dates for selected classes will be finalized within 60 days of application.

- Classes may run from 1-5 days in length but may be longer if offered as evening classes once weekly.
- Classes generally run between the hours of 9 am and 4 pm.
- For Spring and Fall workshops, shorter classes that run partially (or fully) on weekends are preferred. (For example, 3-day workshop running from Thursday to Saturday.)
- For Summer workshops, any class length or time of week may be proposed.
- Once per week evening classes may be proposed for any season. These are for local instructors only. (For example, one evening class per week for 6 weeks.)
- You may also propose a workshop that is a partial day offering – i.e. from 1:00 to 4:00 pm.
