

KILN FIRING AGREEMENT

Sculpting the Portrait in Clay with Michael Warrick

Workshop Overview

Ceramic work may be subject to natural stress, cracking, or material failure. This workshop does not include any kiln firings as part of tuition.

Participant Certification

By signing this agreement, you certify that:

- ESSA is not responsible for any issues that occur naturally in your clay pieces during the workshop.
- You remain responsible for full payment regardless of outcome.
- ESSA will hold your items for no more than 30 days after workshop completion. Items not picked up within 30 days will be forfeited.
- You are responsible for bringing materials to safely transport your work.

Liability Release

By signing below, you acknowledge the inherent risks involved in working with clay and release ESSA from all claims related to damage or loss of your items.
